Yet I Wonder

music by Diederik Wissels- words by David Linx

The mor - ning wakes me gen - tly, care - fully tells me not to be long.

A suit - case with me-m'ries will keep me warm for the jour - ney.
I'll set - tle for a twist of fate, who's next, yet I won - der.

The trou - ble is my heart re - fu - ses to give up on me
No sign un - der the sun to keep me from go - ing un - der.

It's found a rhy - thm and a trot on which we both had a - greed.
I've learned to dance my way home un - der a - ny kind of wea - ther.

A for - tress built with firm con - vic - tion and with pride.
Home is this for - tress of de - ci - sion and of pride.

G/A   Dmaj7 ♯5   C♯m7   F♯7 ♭5,♯5,♭9,♯9

This mo - mont's call - ing for a page to turn, yet I won - der,

Bm   A♭7/E   E♭7 ♭9   E7/D   E♭/D♭

how do we go fur - ther, how do you keep a - way the thun - der
I will walk the dis - tance, be - come the storm when you're the thun - der

C♭maj7 ♯5   A♭m/C♭   1. B♭m7 11   E♭7 ♭9/B♭   D.S. al Coda   2. A♭m7/C♭ G♭2/B♭

do you know?
do you know?

D♭m/A♭   A♭m

3